Introduction

Hello and Thanks for getting a copy of Tempt Fate!

I believe we are only as good as we allow our minds and others to believe we are and so that is why i am keen on Personal Development and grabbing hold of mind expanding theories and philosophies that can leverage your effort for an faster, clearer road to success.

Everything comes at a cost or with effort we cannot escape this, so this book is based on real life experience's I had with achieving strange almost impossible things to happen in front of my eyes!

Firstly who am I?

My name is Xavier Barroso, 35 years old from the Gold Coast, Queensland in Australia. I am single with no children. I started Internet Marketing 2 years ago in 2010 with the goal to achieve financial freedom.

I was born and grew up in Sydney, New South Wales, my parents divorced when I was 4 so my sister and I were brought up by my mother. We moved around town a lot and in total I went to 13 different primary and high schools.

Most of my bringing we lived with our grandparents in Liverpool west Sydney. Life wasn't easy, Being that my mother was in charge of us I grew up being very dismissive or a rule breaker. As a teen I would wag school and smoke with friends, even steal from shopping centers and occasionally got into a bit of biff (Fighting). At 16 I started Smoking marijuana with my friends, this was the beginning of my problems. I soon got depressed and began with psychological problems or delusive beliefs that lead to me acquiring mild schizophrenia.

I left school in year 11 to work as a kitchen hand in Mc Donald's. That lasted for about 12 months in which time I did my pilots license which allowed me to fly 2 and 4 seated aircraft in a restricted area called the training zone.

During that time I had stopped smoking cannabis until I suddenly made a bad choice and quit my job! I started hanging out with old friends and started smoking drugs again.

Soon I was stealing just to get a bit of drugs as the unemployment benefits would be smoked up in 2 days flat.

I would look for golf balls at a local golf course and sell them to players for a bit of extra cash to supply my habit. I was on off drugs for a while and in and out of jobs quicker than you can change underwear. Nothing could motivate me to stay employed and keep a normal job and live a normal life. I was unemployable so to speak!

Things got worse over time and at 22 I was imprisoned for 2 years for a string of robberies I did to supply my drug & gambling habit. In this time I made some changes, I quit smoking and got a job at a fruit shop!

This would be my job whilst achieving the works release program in my last 10 months jail. I came out clean and a hard worker I saved cash, had my own car at one stage was working 3-4 jobs. I even moved out and rented a granny flat where I would stay for 8 Months.

But I started getting depressed again!! I wasn't medicated as I had quit in prison after a mate told me they were terrible for your body and mind. I started getting Urges for drugs again, I was always thinking of an excuse to start my old habits.

After being clean of drugs for almost 5 years and back out in the public for 3 years I met up with someone to start smoking drugs again. This was a choice that turned into my second round of big troubled addictions, schizophrenia and more time in prison!

Cut a long story short I got obsessed with drugs again, got depressed and started hearing and having flashes of memories or delusions, I did crime and I did 4 and a half more Years in prison!! Ouch, This Hurt a lot!!

I came out clean over 2 years ago and since I have been working on my Internet based business goals. Life is better now. I am medicated and don't suffer the depression or stress from the psychological beliefs that hurt me to the Point of attempting suicide twice. I was lucky. But God gives a chance to those that give themselves a chance.

God was with me all the way through it, and as you will find out it was all part of his plan to give me a chance to make something of myself.

My Experience

I wish I could tell you that I have run a respectable lucrative money making business but the truth is I haven't; this doesn't mean I have no skills it just means that my timing has not presented itself yet! Everything happens in timing and when you are ready you will know it because you are in tune with the higher level of awareness and a successful Business is something you have to tap into with your own cunning Plan using the knowledge, tools and networks you have attained.

Sure I am working on things and who is to say that things will not be different later down the track. The point to this ebook is that what I have successfully achieved is worth far more than any monetary valued Item in this world as I see it and wouldn't exchange it For money unless we are talking huge figures, and although some people will not see the value in what I have achieved, Others will look at it as one of those testimonials & formulas to success that should be treasured.

So although I am not a Millionaire in Dollars I hold an invaluable formula and proof that that this formula works which I will show you later. At the age of 25 I started building a Network Marketing Business (well It was a good try anyway) my uncle was a powerful upcoming Leader for a health and nutrition Network Marketing Company and so I joined him.

I learned many experiences through this, although it only made me some retail sales profits from products I sold; the networking, personal development and leadership skills I learned were well worth the effort and time I put into it. Network Marketing was my only dream for a long time, and then I started reading books on real estate and then my plans for real estate grew.

I never found the right timing or credit rating to get into buying positive cash flow rental properties. Also in my mid 20's I was introduced to resell rights products, and again although I did not do enough with it back then, since being released from prison 2 years ago my focus has been on this so I have a passion for it and hope my Business will grow.

You can say I am a big dreamer! I believe if life is going to make you successful you are better off aiming your projections all the way to the top, that way you can see other real opportunities that may lead you just shy of the most incredible almost impossible dream. Like they saying goes: aim for the moon so if you lose your way there, at least you will land amongst the stars. I also have a very vivid imagination.

Some of my past delusive beliefs include, dying and going to heaven, looking into my Life in rewind and being judged as a consequence, my life is a conspiracy, dying and turning back the hands of time and coming back. memories of children I had with a famous singer, flying (without aircraft) and astral projection travelling, fighting evil, being hypnotized etc mostly evil stuff, being cursed conspired chased by the Color Red.

In my first death I remember clearly I was guided by Jesus Christ. I had taken a fraudulent bank loan out and bought a motorcycle (true story). Whilst high on drugs one time I remember riding into a Coca Cola truck and dying as a consequence (UMM this one's hard to prove). What brought me back was a formula that could be inserted into the spirit world. Anyway with the Help of Jesus we put together my bike and reversed the moment so to speak. I got a second chance!

You don't have to believe this story as obviously I have been diagnosed as schizophrenic by the smart Guys (Doctors). Anyway I tell you this memory so you can understand who I am and how I can think. This formula to reversing death I'll keep close to my heart, but I do want to share with a formula to attainment! Maybe even great success! But I have to warn to only use it at your own risk!

Motivating life's balance of good and bad energies to help you to bring you results quicker than normal will ask for sacrifice in one way or another. I don't mean you will die! Life will naturally want to protect you always! but nothing good comes without a price and this formula requires you be clear what you are going to pay in order to get hold of your big or little openings to get you to your goal.

Programs

Firstly congratulations, You are where you want to be and this because you have pre-programmed yourself to be who you are at this moment in time. You are living the life based on your life's choices be it small or big ones. You successfully chose to participate in and win the race between millions of sperm to be the first to fertilize the egg, and this was the beginning of your physical earthly growth!

The program I use to achieve goals is simple and based on your spiritual lively choices! You came to be at a time you decided there was a fair balance of give and take, pain and fulfillment, bad and good times to take your seat and live life as you programmed it to be. You agreed with fate on this! So good and bad is what this world we live in is full of it is in our path through Innocence, though humbleness. Whilst we are attacked by fear in our un-expecting moments Life turned around for you and brought you hope, strength and the maturity to make the correct decisions based on your level of awareness and your God Given Gifts!

Life is always looking for ways to move forward so in order to do this life acknowledges that many doors (choices) by many people must be opened tried and tested. The better of the Results go to those that practice this! To those that are always testing philosophies, theories, strategies, going about quietly in achieving your Goals and curious about the massive results people can achieve seeming so easily from very humble beginnings! And to those that incorporate there philosophies into their Life. Those that believe that life gives a chance if only you try, and holds no fear for one second and knows all good will prevail.

You clearly understand that the effort you put in for your goals has resulted in the life you live today! And you are successfully living Life based on your Plan!

So before we start learning about "Tempting Fate" which is the program I use you have to understand that you are successful! You are living your plan! If you disagree then you have to understand that you must start to plan! Failing To plan is planning to fail!!

What is Tempting Fate??

Planning to: Give & receive, put effort in & results out, go through hard times followed by good times, suffer pain followed by fulfillment, go from dust to diamonds!!

It is unbelievably mysterious and it is real! It is helping me believe that the biggest dreams are most likely come true because they are planned and worked on vigorously unlike others!

How does Tempting Fate Work?

Whilst planning (mentally projecting) to receive your first step goal be prepared to close the doorway (offer sacrifice) to something of value that you may have (in an occurrence). It could be sentimental or monetary, physical, or it could be effort! The point is that you have to pay a price in order to achieve the next step to your goal, kind of like bartering your way (exchanging) value for one thing for another in exchange for your realization and attainment.

My first example

Whilst in Prison I came to the conclusion that if I had achieved to put myself in such a terrible situation I could reverse the tables and achieve whatever it is I want. So I got positive and started to believe that this experience was actually a blessing in disguise and that soon I will have everything I want. Having experienced what I thought were miracles in my past and holding a balance of good and bad spiritual karma I realized the only way to speed this up is to talk directly to the ether (good and bad Energy) and negotiate an exit plan; to test me! I knew bad energy was a keen tester and I knew God was on my side.

So I started to program myself to go through a terrible deal of suffering in order for me to grab hold of a chance, a tool, inspiration, a chance to prove to myself and others that in life you can program to go from lowest of lows to highest of high's. I was an avid collector of 4 leaf clovers whilst in prison, whilst given time to be on the recreation oval that is; I would search for them.

The only solid tools I could acquire in prison would need to be basic, so I made a program (mental projection) to bring me sheer luck coincidence fate, pain, suffering and fulfillment whatever it was to bring me a solution to my hopes, leadership and uncertainty in my life, a science to achieving miracles. Now that I think about it, this program took me on a lot of pain and suffering whilst in prison but the end result was achieving something that meant more to me than money "a formula". Think about it! It could be potentially my own book, the beginning of my leadership qualities, an ability to connect with people.

So I decided to find not 1 but 3 five leaf clovers, hmm it's hard to find 1 being free on the outside, how do you find 3 In prison on the inside? It's simple "the easy way!"

“but hang on your telling me there is always a price to pay isn't there??”

Yes and I will tell you the program now but I mean easy in the sense of speeding it up!! At the end of the day you put in the fair share effort, loss or emotions to have life bless you with your tools. Life wants to bless you with the tools to success you just have to be prepared to believe you will find them step at a time.

So any way one time on the recreation oval I made a cunning tempt of fate, it was the biggest program that continues to help me grow even today 6 and a half Years Later and it is all happening sub-consciously, the result of negotiating a plan with hard hitting consequences!!

So anyway I decided that the first 5 leaf clover was not going to be at the prison I was at, I made the Tempt of Fate that for some reason I get belted by a couple of Inmates for no good reason whilst sitting on my bed reading a book then I go into protective custody and then I find the first 5 Leaf clover after coincidentally stopping to look at 1 Clover all on its own on an oval, I remember going into detail about the next 2 5 Leaf clovers on this same program out on the oval but I will continue with it Later.

What Happened with my bashing was my cellmate thought I told somebody that he had food in his property in his cell and for no good reason he and his mate came into the cell while i was resting with brooms and mops and belted me with them, yeah I fought back but I was more riddled with fear than hurt, I bled from the head and had my ear twisted and swollen bad. This was in December 2005.

In January I was moved to a different prison in protection area. We also had an oval there where I would look for lucky leaf clovers, Nothing really appeared until one day on the oval for some reason I stopped to look at 1 little clover on its own with about ten others close to it and , Incredibly it was a 5 leaf clover! Oh my God I could not believe it I found a 5 leaf clover. The program I had forgotten about and never thought nothing of it until just recently here 6 Years Later.

It's like my delusive beliefs; they come back to me in the form of flashes, memories. Except this was real! Shortly after finding the first clover I was sentenced and moved to a different prison. I spent 3 Years there until I came to the conclusion that I should try and move to a Sydney prison to speed up my Last 7 months in prison. I was feeling like something had to change another price had to be paid in order to get home FREE! I started to Tempt Fate with programs again, This time I would be stuck in a transit prison for 3 weeks waiting to get moved to my destination prison. I would come close to finding trouble again and spend my days nervous and in fear.

This was a price I was paying for my Program to bring me my 2nd 5 Leaf clover, but wait is it?? Actually when you look closely to the Leaves one of them is a Siamese twin but in 1 Leaf, so potentially this is a 6 soul, 5 leaf clover, but wait when I find it and bring it into my cell I have a terrible time trying to flatten the leaves in a nice displayed fashion whilst putting it in between the pages of a book, it would be puzzling and I would have to be careful I don't break a Leaf as it seemed to be upside down. All these prices where helping me understand that the Lucky clover was really on its way to me! This led me to believe it! And Make it real! So what is the price I was paying here? Apart from 3 weeks in a transit stink hole prison and a tricky clover?

Well In my first days out on the oval when I dreamed this massive program up. I actually found what looked like a 6 Leaf clover, actually 3 leaves with a 3 Leaf just above it on the same stem, I left it there! So I made a promise that if I found a six leaf clover I would leave it there, as silly as it sounds, I was cursed by the number 6 Spiritually, but my lucky stars tell me 6 is my lucky number, So in my very first tempt of fate I made this program to bring me closer to fates chances to bring me a 6 Leaf clover! A 5 Leaf clover but maybe in disguise! It is clearly 2 leaves in the One Leaf but when I look at it, it is a 5 leaf clover; there is no denying that this is not a 5 leaf clover "Physically". Once again these programs seam to work for me when I had forgotten the actual program, leaving just fate the ether and the subconscious, to find it for me. whilst programming this second tempt of fate I also programmed a 3rd 5 leaf clover and the price was that my Jasper crystal cruz fix I had around my neck on a necklace of tooth floss would fall to the ground and break. This was a sad moment when it happened, but as I was programming it to happen I realized that both where going to happen one door closing and another one opening.

Also this 5 leaf clover was going to be of a different Species of clover not the standard species like the previous two and also one of the Leaves are upside down so I have a tricky time trying to straighten it.. This was the Price I was willing to pay whilst programming (mentally picturing or believing or visualizing) for number 3 but wait. There was more! A series of events gets me finding a works release job, quitting it on the first day due to workplace health and safety issues, and as a result being shifted back to where I was in the first place, all this was programmed when I made this second tempt of fate. Again I would come close to problems, but I was just days from release now.

It's funny how all these things actually happened without me thinking much of it, even forgetting the program until flashes or memories came to me on a later date just recently.

You should note that although I made these incredible Programs I did not really take them into Mind along the way! Meaning I just thought I was making impossible projections for the future but forgot to remember clearly that I did it until recently. For this reason it is probably better to aim high and hold No Boundaries and not think much of it!

Here is a Picture of My 5 Leaf Clovers

Why Does this Work? What is the Science behind it?

I guess the Key is not to believe just in Science and methodology; God is real and is more powerful than we can imagine. We in a way talk to God ask him to help us and negotiate a plan to bring us chances to find your tools to success. Sure you can just set your goals and work on them, not everyone believes in God, at least be aware of good and bad Karma, energy etc. I think when times are tough we are more receptive to the higher good and have more ability to make it happen with planning, visualization & belief. When you have reached your lowest point you will automatically create and believe in a solution, a key to a better Life! Like in my example, this was the lowest point of my Life; I had No Chance but to turn the tables around for good. You are more likely to aim high when you are hurt and in an unfortunate situation than when you are comfortable and happily living from paycheck to paycheck and not Interested in knowing that so much more is really possible.

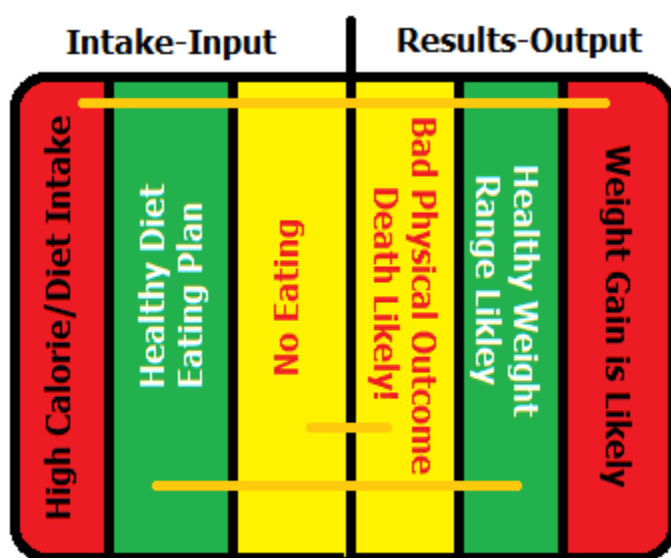

Remember this program was done to give me the tools to find my own way, for a Chance to find my own calling. You should use a similar approach where you exchange your sacrifices be it monetary or other in order for knowledge, partnership or something that can be useful and of value to you.

Do not think you will exchange your way to a million dollar check so to say. You can if You like however; Life will more than likely bring you development and tools for success before bringing you a million dollars, which is comparable to a school kid with a loaded gun in distress.

You will find your own way in timing and with growth, think expansion leverage, and be a Learner with eagerness to teach, listen carefully and watch what happens around you!

I think a possible science or explanation to this theory can be understood if we look at basic example of Input to output graph of dieting for a minute and realize why people can go from such low points to high points in their Life:

We have to agree that when we look at this diagram we see we only get results out to the same level of effort we put in!

So what happens when we stop putting in the effort and eating? We create a different path of our own! We Lie on the brink between good and bad energy!

We break the common laws of nature and are susceptible to raging consequences!

Forces of nature will bring you physical consequences

At this point in time you can basically decide to continue on this terrible path or fix up and plan or program a goal to get great results which is most logical solution and this can be easiest time to tap into it! You cannot go any lower! You can only get better and rise!

So you set new dieting goals and expect to put effort into it!

The same applies to tempting fate except you begin with the plan to give something in order to receive something!

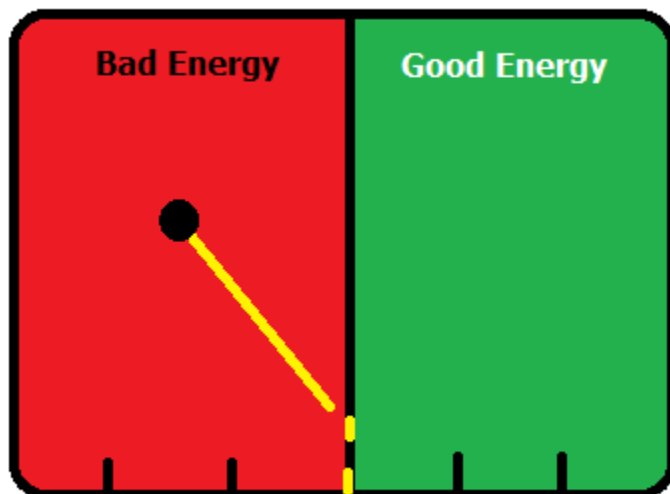

One way of looking at it is we are all surrounded and participate through a life filled by good and bad energy! Like the image shows.

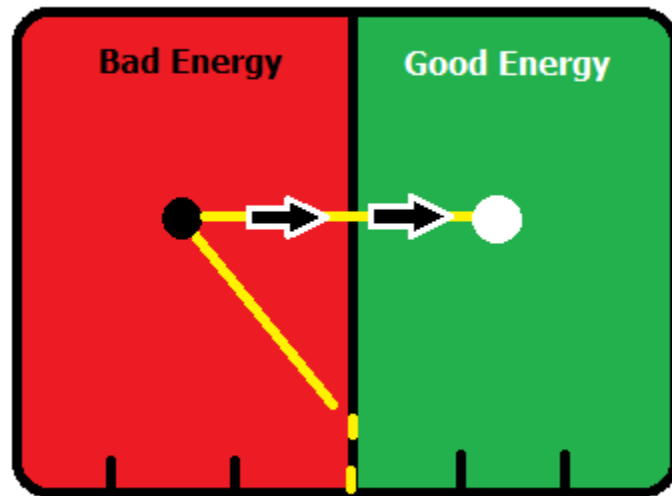

Choosing your own path, your own non conventional lifestyle is to be traveling in your own path in between good and bad energy.

Sooner or later bad energy is going to reach out and accomplish in you suffering a price! The consequence of breaking your contract!

Fear not good energy will hear your pain!

Life will get you in a quite frail but receivable state of mind. Remember murphy's law, when the impossible is most likely very possible, or you will most likely receive when you least expect it, and expect the unexpected!

Good energy will materialize good for you based on your level price you had to pay!

Naturally we are in a world that is balance with good and bad energy! Unfortunately only bad times can bring good times and vicar versa. So do not think much about waiting for your program to materialize. In fact try not to remember it.

I remember clearly programming a series of events to make me forget. Life will get you to experience massive change. Over the course of series of events that will baffle your imagination leave you hindered and erase any conscious alertness that it was planned, when you least expect it, be cunning to know that you are going to experience a sudden moment

Leaving you frail and approachable by the good energy this life has to offer!

Do not limit your imagination! God makes miracles only through offerings of sacrifice! Think clearly! Think about it wise, be yourself, the good things in life are hidden from view! Instant riches are not what it appears to be (beware of the flip side!).

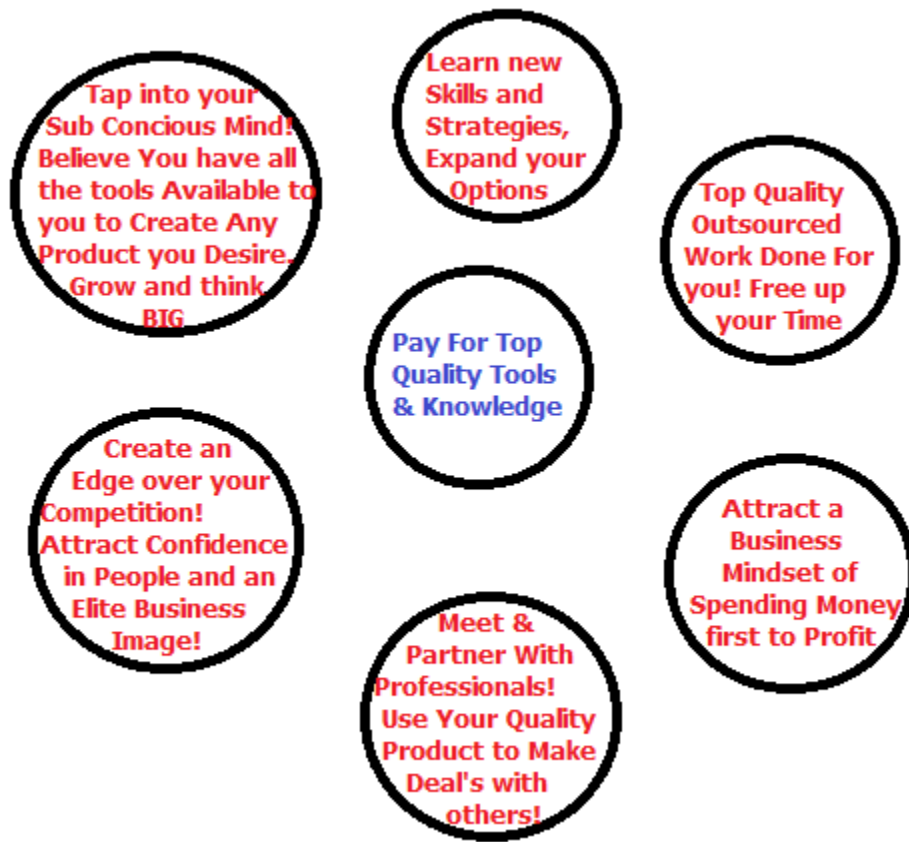

Success however is the result of attracting good energy after committing yourself to and paying the price for the success you had visualized, or by rising your level of awareness high enough to answer to the opportunity when it knocks on your door. The secret formula is visualization with belief and emotion! Experience the bad & good times before it happens, be sure it is right for you! Agree to it! And visualize a series of events (step goals) that leads you to achieving your long term goal, sub-consciously, getting busy, never thinking much about it, even forgetting your program! Aim higher than normal for this! You have to program your sub-conscious mind, this is the key to attaining incredible wealth & opportunity. Also develop your paradigm of physical, spiritual, psychological and emotional Self.

The State of Mind of Risk Takers

Here is another clear example of leveraging your efforts for rapid growth by being a money spender and always adopting risk Management as a Business growth strategy!

As you can see from the mind map; Businesses that use risk Management are always going to be on top of the game and harness the latest tools news training and information that you or your customers are looking for!

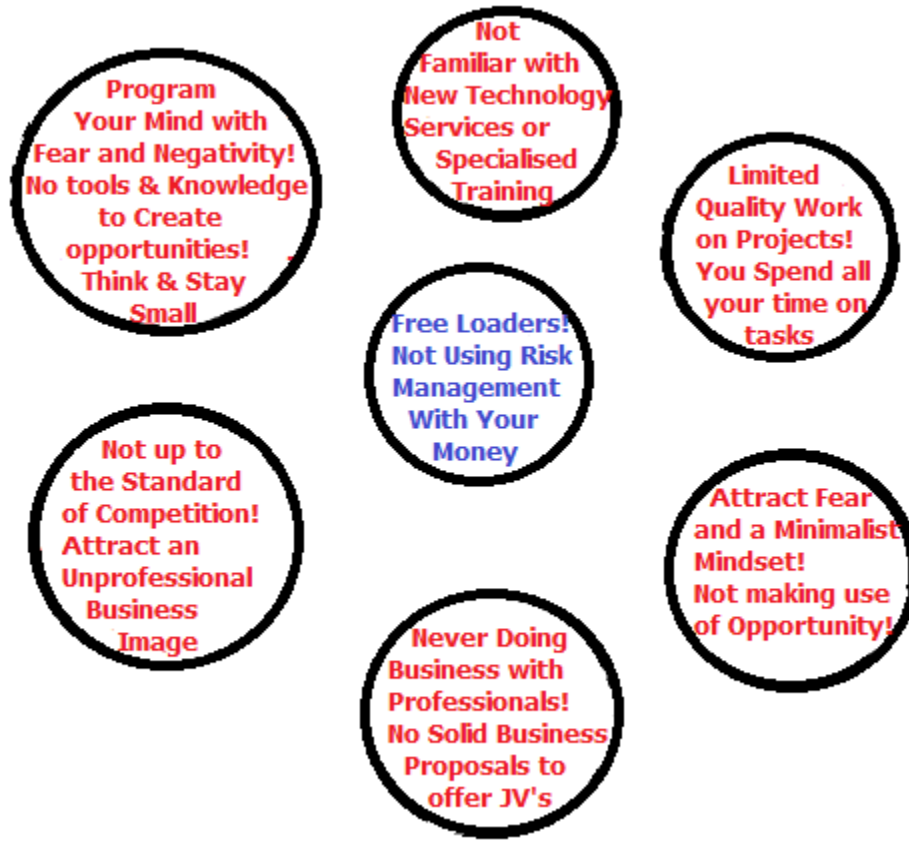

The Risk Takers Opportunity Circle

The State of Mind of Non Risk Takers

And in this chart we see exactly what non spenders, free loaders and non risk takers are missing out on!

The Non Risk Takers Opportunity Circle

As you can see from the mind maps the way we think determines our actions, surroundings and consequences.

Here is another method of programming yourself to achieve success. This Chapter on auto suggestion has been taken out of the very famous book “Think & Grow Rich” by Napoleon Hill 1937.

Use the principles to auto-suggestion (self programming) in this chapter to master achieving your goals as you want them. A free download of the full version eBook Think & Grow Rich is available at the end of this ebook.

AUTO-SUGGESTION

THE MEDIUM FOR INFLUENCING THE SUBCONSCIOUS MIND

The Third Step toward Riches

AUTO-SUGGESTION is a term which applies to suggestions and all self-administered stimuli which reach one's mind through the five senses. Stated in another way, auto-suggestion is self-suggestion. It is the agency of communication between that part of the mind where conscious thought takes place, and that which serves as the seat of action for the subconscious mind. Through the dominating thoughts which one permits to remain in the conscious mind, (whether these thoughts be negative or positive, is immaterial), the principle of auto-suggestion voluntarily reaches the subconscious mind and influences it with these thoughts.

NO THOUGHT, whether it be negative or positive, CAN ENTER THE SUBCONSCIOUS MIND WITHOUT THE AID OF THE PRINCIPLE OF AUTO-SUGGESTION, with the exception of thoughts picked up from the ether. Stated differently, all sense impressions which are perceived through the five senses, are stopped by the CONSCIOUS thinking mind, and may be either passed on to the subconscious mind, or rejected, at will. The conscious faculty serves, therefore, as an outer-guard to the approach of the subconscious.

Nature has so built man that he has ABSOLUTE CONTROL over the material which reaches his subconscious mind, through his five senses, although this is not meant to be construed as a statement that man always EXERCISES this control. In the great majority of instances, he does NOT exercise it, which explains why so many people go through life in poverty.

Recall what has been said about the subconscious mind resembling a fertile garden spot, in which weeds will grow in abundance, if the seeds of more desirable crops are not sown therein. AUTO-SUGGESTION is the agency of control through which an individual may voluntarily feed his subconscious mind on thoughts of a creative nature, or, by neglect, permit thoughts of a destructive nature to find their way into this rich garden of the mind.

You were instructed, in the last of the six steps described in the chapter on Desire, to read ALOUD twice daily the WRITTEN statement of your DESIRE FOR MONEY, and to SEE AND FEEL yourself ALREADY in possession of the money! By following these instructions, you communicate the object of your DESIRE directly to your SUBCONSCIOUS mind in a spirit of absolute FAITH.

Through repetition of this procedure, you voluntarily create thought habits which are favourable to your efforts to transmute desire into its monetary equivalent.

Go back to these six steps described in chapter two, and read them again, very carefully, before you proceed further. Then (when you come to it), read very carefully the four instructions for the organization of your "Master Mind" group, described in the chapter on Organized Planning. By comparing these two sets of instructions with that which has been stated on auto-suggestion, you, of course, will see that the instructions involve the application of the principle of auto-suggestion.

Remember, therefore, when reading aloud the statement of your desire (through which you are endeavouring to develop a "money consciousness"), that the mere reading of the words is of NO CONSEQUENCE— UNLESS you mix emotion, or feeling with your words. If you repeat a million times the famous Emil Coué formula, "Day by day, in every way, I am getting better and better," without mixing emotion and FAITH with your words, you will experience no desirable results. Your subconscious mind recognizes and acts upon ONLY thoughts which have been well-mixed with emotion or feeling.

This is a fact of such importance as to warrant repetition in practically every chapter, because the lack of understanding of this is the main reason the majority of people who try to apply the principle of auto-suggestion get no desirable results.

Plain, unemotional words do not influence the subconscious mind. You will get no appreciable results until you learn to reach your subconscious mind with thoughts, or spoken words which have been well emotionalized with BELIEF.

Do not become discouraged, if you cannot control and direct your emotions the first time you try to do so. Remember, there is no such possibility as SOMETHING FOR NOTHING. Ability to reach, and influence your subconscious mind has its price, and you MUST PAY THAT PRICE. You cannot cheat, even if you desire to do so.

The price of ability to influence your subconscious mind is everlasting PERSISTENCE in applying the principles described here. You cannot develop the desired ability for a lower price. You, and YOU ALONE, must decide whether or not the reward for which you are striving (the "money consciousness"), is worth the price you must pay for it in effort.

Wisdom and "cleverness" alone, will not attract and retain money except in a few very rare instances, where the law of averages favours the attraction of money through these sources. The method of attracting money described here, does not depend upon the law of averages. Moreover, the method plays no favourites. It will work for one person as effectively as it will for another. Where failure is experienced, it is the individual, not the method, which has failed. If you try and fail, make another effort, and still another, until you succeed.

Your ability to use the principle of auto-suggestion will depend, very largely, upon your capacity to CONCENTRATE upon a given DESIRE until that desire becomes a BURNING OBSESSION.

When you begin to carry out the instructions in connection with the six steps described in the second chapter, it will be necessary for you to make use of the principle of CONCENTRATION.

Let us here offer suggestions for the effective use of concentration. When you begin to carry out the first of the six steps, which instructs you to "fix in your own mind the EXACT amount of money you desire," hold your thoughts on that amount of money by CONCENTRATION, or fixation of attention, with your eyes closed, until you can ACTUALLY SEE the physical appearance of the money. Do this at least once each day. As you go through these exercises, follow the instructions given in the chapter on FAITH, and see yourself actually IN POSSESSION OF THE MONEY!

Here is a most significant fact—the subconscious mind takes any orders given it in a spirit of absolute FAITH, and acts upon those orders, although the orders often have to be presented over and over again, through repetition, before they are interpreted by the subconscious mind. Following the preceding statement, consider the possibility of playing a perfectly legitimate "trick" on your subconscious mind, by making it believe, because you believe it, that you must have the amount of money you are visualizing, that this money is already awaiting your claim, that the subconscious mind MUST hand over to you practical plans for acquiring the money which is yours.

Hand over the thought suggested in the preceding paragraph to your IMAGINATION, and see what your imagination can, or will do, to create practical plans for the accumulation of money through transmutation of your desire.

DO NOT WAIT for a definite plan, through which you intend to exchange services or merchandise in return for the money you are visualizing, but begin at once to see yourself in possession of the money, DEMANDING and EXPECTING meanwhile, that your subconscious mind will hand over the plan, or plans you need. Be on the alert for these plans, and when they appear, put them into ACTION IMMEDIATELY. When the plans appear, they will probably "flash" into your mind through the sixth sense, in the form of an "inspiration." This inspiration may be considered a direct "telegram," or message from Infinite Intelligence. Treat it with respect, and act upon it as soon as you receive it. Failure to do this will be FATAL to your success.

In the fourth of the six steps, you were instructed to "Create a definite plan for carrying out your desire, and begin at once to put this plan into action." You should follow this instruction in the manner described in the preceding paragraph. Do not trust to your "reason when creating your plan for accumulating money through the transmutation of desire. Your reason is faulty. Moreover, your reasoning faculty may be lazy, and, if you depend entirely upon it to serve you, it may disappoint you.

When visualizing the money you intend to accumulate, (with closed eyes), see yourself rendering the service, or delivering the merchandise you intend to give in return for this money. This is important!

SUMMARY OF INSTRUCTIONS

The fact that you are reading this book is an indication that you earnestly seek knowledge. It is also an indication that you are a student of this subject. If you are only a student, there is a chance that you may learn much that you did not know, but you will learn only by assuming an attitude of humility. If you choose to follow some of the instructions but neglect, or refuse to follow others—you will fail! To get satisfactory results, you must follow ALL instructions in a spirit of FAITH.

The instructions given in connection with the six steps in the second chapter will now be summarized, and blended with the principles covered by this chapter, as follows:

First. Go into some quiet spot (preferably in bed at night) where you will not be disturbed or interrupted, close your eyes, and repeat aloud, (so you may hear your own words) the written statement of the amount of money you intend to accumulate, the time limit for its accumulation, and a description of the service or merchandise you intend to give in return for the money. As you carry out these instructions, SEE YOURSELF ALREADY IN POSSESSION OF THE MONEY.

For example :— Suppose that you intend to accumulate $50,000 by the first of January, five years hence, that you intend to give personal services in return for the money, in the Capacity of a salesman. Your written statement of your purpose should be similar to the following:

"By the first day of January, 19.., I will have in my possession $50,000, which will come to me in various amounts from time to time during the interim.

"In return for this money I will give the most efficient service of which I am capable, rendering the fullest possible quantity, and the best possible quality of service in the capacity of salesman of (describe the service or merchandise you intend to sell).

"I believe that I will have this money in my possession. My faith is so strong that I can now see this money before my eyes. I can touch it with my hands. It is now awaiting transfer to me at the time, and in the proportion that I deliver the service I intend to render in return for it. I am awaiting a plan by which to accumulate this money, and I will follow that plan, when it is received."

Second. Repeat this program night and morning until you can see, (in your imagination) the money you intend to accumulate.

Third. Place a written copy of your statement where you can see it night and morning, and read it just before retiring, and upon arising until it has been memorized.

Remember, as you carry out these instructions, that you are applying the principle of auto-suggestion, for the purpose of giving orders to your subconscious mind. Remember, also, that your subconscious mind will act ONLY upon instructions which are emotionalized, and handed over to it with "feeling." FAITH is the strongest, and most productive of the emotions. Follow the instructions given in the chapter on FAITH.

These instructions may, at first, seem abstract. Do not let this disturb you. Follow the instructions, no matter how abstract or impractical they may, at first, appear to be. The time will soon come, if you do as you have been instructed, in spirit as well as in act, when a whole new universe of power will unfold to you.

Scepticism, in connection with ALL new ideas, is characteristic of all human beings. But if you follow the instructions outlined, your scepticism will soon be replaced by belief, and this, in turn, will soon become crystallized into ABSOLUTE FAITH. Then you will have arrived at the point where you may truly say, "I am the master of my fate, I am the captain of my soul!"

Many philosophers have made the statement, that man is the master of his own earthly destiny, but most of them have failed to say why he is the master. The reason that man may be the master of his own earthly status, and especially his financial status, is thoroughly explained in this chapter. Man may become the master of himself, and of his environment, because he has the POWER TO INFLUENCE HIS OWN SUBCONSCIOUS MIND, and through it, gain the cooperation of Infinite Intelligence.

You are now reading the chapter which represents the keystone to the arch of this philosophy. The instructions contained in this chapter must be understood and APPLIED WITH PERSISTENCE, if you succeed in transmuting desire into money.

The actual performance of transmuting DESIRE into money, involves the use of auto-suggestion as an agency by which one may reach, and influence, the subconscious mind. The other principles are simply tools with which to apply auto-suggestion. Keep this thought in mind, and you will, at all times, be conscious of the important part the principle of auto-suggestion is to play in your efforts to accumulate money through the methods described in this book.

Carry out these instructions as though you were a small child. Inject into your efforts something of the FAITH of a child. The author has been most careful, to see that no impractical instructions were included, because of his sincere desire to be helpful.

After you have read the entire book, come back to this chapter, and follow in spirit, and in action, this instruction:

READ THE ENTIRE CHAPTER ALOUD ONCE EVERY NIGHT, UNTIL YOU BECOME THOROUGHLY CONVINCED THAT THE PRINCIPLE OF AUTO-SUGGESTION IS SOUND, THAT IT WILL ACCOMPLISH FOR YOU ALL THAT HAS BEEN CLAIMED FOR IT. AS YOU READ, UNDERSCORE WITH A PENCIL EVERY SENTENCE WHICH IMPRESSES YOU FAVORABLY.

Follow the foregoing instruction to the letter, and it will open the way for a complete understanding, and mastery of the principles of success.
